FOUNDERS

Dillan Ariyawansa
President

With over 35 years of experience in different industries, Dillan found his true passion in the wine world, a field that combines creativity, hospitality, and connection. He took his love for hosting wine and food pairings to the next level with By the Glass – driven by passion and innovation.

After a six year strong friendship, Dillan and his close friend, now business partner, Kyle Flandrau, decided to make their shared dream come true with By the Glass. “We share the same passion and bring exceptional wines to the market, where people can experience the uniqueness of the grapes and a mouth-watering taste”.

“I’ve been lucky enough to visit many top restaurants around the world and experience a variety of flavors and cultures. Wine has always been a big part of that experience. I believe it’s the right time to share my passion with the world through By the Glass, because... we only have one life to live.”

From center stage to cellar doors, Kyle Flandrau’s journey has been nothing short of extraordinary. A former professional singer signed to major labels like Disney and Hollywood Records, Kyle toured the globe from the age of eight, performing on major platforms such as Good Morning America, The Tony Danza Show, Good Day New York, and PBS.

After an inspiring career in entertainment, Kyle found a new passion in wine. Under the mentorship of a legendary figure in the industry, he dove deep into the business—eventually founding By The Glass, a company that would marry creativity with premium wine sourcing and branding.

With an entrepreneurial mindset and bold vision, Kyle—alongside Dillan—has grown By The Glass into an international brand. Today, the company operates in five countries, with offices in New York, New Jersey, Florida, Sri Lanka, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada.

Under his leadership, By The Glass has launched over 50 successful wine brands, each one distinct and innovative.

“At By The Glass, we blend passion with purpose—bringing world-class wines to market while celebrating the stories, people, and places behind every bottle.”

Kyle continues to lead the company with energy, creativity, and a commitment to setting new benchmarks in the global wine industry.
